FINANCIAL INFORMATION

The financial information disclosed in this application will be viewed by the Scholarship Committee only, and will be held in confidence.

Are you (or will you) receiving any other scholarships? If yes, please list the source and amount.

Will you receive financial assistance from your parents, guardians or other economic units during the next academic year? If yes, please indicate how much support you expect to receive.

PERSONAL STATEMENT

Please attach a 200 to 500 word essay in which you discuss significant experiences, accomplishments and hurdles or obstacles that you may have overcome in pursuit of your education. Also, please provide specific examples as they relate to your current engineering studies and future career goals. Finally, explain how receiving a scholarship will affect you. Personal Statements are used by the Scholarship Committee to select scholarship recipients.

CERTIFICATION

I affirm the information that I have provided on this application is complete, accurate, and true to the best of my knowledge. I understand that furnishing false information may result in revocation of my Engineering Dean's Scholarship. Pursuant to the Family Educational Rights Act of 1974, as amended (FERPA), I hereby authorize The Ohio State University College of Engineering to release the College of Engineering scholarship application information provided by me, as well as other official and unofficial OSU information regarding academic progress and status, to scholarship donors for the purposes of providing them with information concerning my eligibility as a scholarship recipient.
