The following course list is approved for students admitted to The Ohio State University (any program) Summer 2013 through Spring 2014. Students admitted to Ohio State earlier than Summer 2013 or later than Spring 2014 should contact their academic advisor to receive a copy of their general education requirements.

GENERAL EDUCATION

Ohio State’s General Education (Gen Ed) is an integral part of your academic experience in the College of Engineering. This curriculum is designed to provide you with a better understanding of society’s traditions and past, accomplishments and aspirations, relation and responsibility to the natural world, diversity and plurality, and problems and needs. The goal is for you to develop skills, competencies, and a breadth of knowledge as an educated, productive citizen. Specific goals aimed toward the broader goal of the Gen Ed are listed under each category of the curriculum.

\(^1\)Certain majors require specific course(s) in GE categories:

- ENGR 2367 – Required for Industrial & Systems Engineering (2nd Writing)
- ECON 2001.XX – Required for Aviation, Civil, Environmental Engineering (Social Science Subgroup C)

Course Selection

Some courses are cross-listed in multiple GE categories in the course list below. With the exception of two categories (Professional Ethics and Social Diversity in the US), each GE course can be used to fulfill only one (1) GE category. Professional Ethics and Social Diversity can be used to fulfill an additional GE category in which it is cross listed. See Page 3 for more information regarding Professional Ethics and Social Diversity in the US course options.

Honors Courses

Courses which are offered at the standard or honors level are indicated with an “(H)” after the course number. Courses which are only offered at the honors level are indicated by an “H” after the course number. Courses which are only offered at the standard level will simply list the course number.

Students who do not appropriately plan their coursework to fulfill one of their Gen Ed categories with an Ethics course will be required to take an additional course to fulfill their Ethics category.

SOCIAL DIVERSITY IN THE U.S. (0-3 hr) Select ONE course. This category permits overlap with another GE course.

The goal of courses in this category is to foster an understanding of the pluralistic nature of institutions, society, and culture in the United States.

Courses: All underlined courses in other categories will fulfill both that designated category and the Social Diversity in the US category. Students who do not appropriately plan their coursework to fulfill one of their Gen Ed categories with a Social Diversity course in the US course will be required to take an additional course to fulfill their Social Diversity in the US category.

APPROVED GENERAL EDUCATION SUBSTITUTIONS

Foreign Language

Students pursuing a degree in the College of Engineering are not required to complete a foreign language category in their General Education. However, students who are interested in pursuing coursework in a foreign language are permitted to choose one of the following approved substitutions, within the stated parameters:

Substitution A: Credit (including EM) for a foreign language sequence through 1103, or credit for a foreign language course with a prerequisite of 1103, can be substituted for one Gen Ed course requirement as a Cultures & Ideas.

Substitution B: Completion of a foreign language minor can be substituted for two Gen Ed courses: one course as a Social Science, (Individuals & Groups or Organizations & Polities subgroups only) and one course as either a Literature or a Cultures & Ideas.

Parameters: Students must choose either Substitution A (1 course) OR Substitution B (2 courses). Both substitutions cannot be applied simultaneously.

Contemporary World

Students pursuing a degree in the College of Engineering are not required to complete a Contemporary World requirement in their General Education. However, students who are interested in completing a University-level Contemporary World course are permitted to the following approved substitution:

Substitution A: Approved to fulfill Social Science, any subgroup:
- Anthropology 4597.01, 4597.02, 4597.03H, 4597.04
- Evolution, Ecology, and Organismal Biology 4597.02
- Geography 4597.01, 4597.02
- International Studies 4597.01, 4597.02
- Political Science 4597.01, 4597.02
- Sociology 4597.01, 4597.02

Substitution B: Approved to fulfill Visual & Performing Arts subgroup:
- Comparative Studies 4597.01, 4597.02
- History 4597
